to the Office of President or Vice-Pres. & have the same put in a box to be constructed that papers may be placed therein but not extracted without the box being opened, etc. The procedure to be followed does not appear necessary. He therefore proposes that the ballot may be changed with election may be by ballot, and for, by certain Amendments in Rule VIII(a). Draft Rules to be put for consideration

HMK

The present practice is defective in that the Councillor who wishes to vote has to write on a slip of paper the name of the Candidate he wishes to be elected. (vide rule 8(a)) Rule 9 J. By the writing of the name it will be known who has voted for a particular Candidate. This is neither desirable nor expedient for the smooth working in the Council after the President or Vice President is elected.

The proposed rules ensure secrecy in that the name of the voter will be confined in a slip which is enclosed in a Cover. Only ballot boxes necessarily be opened except to find out the persons who have only voted in favour of (contd) the proceedings before a Committee
